Greetings from Illinois!

Opportunities

We have had the great opportunity to present our ministry at a couple of different missions conferences in Texas and in Illinois. Both churches were such blessings to myself and my family. We are looking forward to filling up the calendar as the year starts to get under way!

As I sit in the airport, waiting to fly back home to see my family, I look forward to visiting churches in Texas, Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma, Illinois, Michigan, and Indiana, among others this year. My hope is that my family will be able to be with me as we progress throughout the year.

FaceTime has certainly made it easier to be away from my family, but it is nowhere near a replacement. My wife and kids are so much a part of me, and a part of my ministry, I look forward to being on the road with them soon.

Support Report

We currently are around 51% of the monthly support we will need.

Prayer Requests

- Please continue to pray for our schedule with the baby to continue to get easier. Pray for me on the longer trips, as I will be by myself until our new little one is old enough to make the long car rides.
- We have had a lot of sickness in our house the last month or so, please pray that God would bring health to everyone.

In Christ,
Zack Shroud
