The Shrouds to Japan

Newsletter – October 2025

Greetings from Texas!

Opportunities

It seems as though the summer flew by! We were honored to be invited to be involved in a missions conference in the San Francisco Bay Area in October. That was our newest daughter Jessica's first real traveling experience.

We were also able to share a delicious Japanese dish with my family while there: it is a dish called Okonomiyaki. Jenn and I were able to experience making this while in Japan, and really enjoyed it, and it was so much fun to be able to share this with others. It's a hearty, savory pancake made with a batter of flour, water, eggs, and grated mountain yam, mixed with plenty of shredded cabbage and whatever you have on hand – thin pork slices, shrimp, green onions, etc. Cooked on a hot griddle until golden, it's topped with a tangy brown sauce, mayonnaise, dried seaweed, and bonito flakes that curl in the heat.

We are back in Texas, and are working on preparing for our next trip, which we hope will be able to happen the first of the year.

Support Report

We currently are around 54% of the monthly support we will need.

Prayer Requests

- We are trying to get a couple of trips scheduled that would involve lengthy travel to other areas to be able to present in churches in the Pacific Northwest, as well as the Kansas/Colorado area. Please pray for schedules to align.

In Christ,
Zack Shroud
